

Privacy policy (POPI)

In accordance with Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 (POPI) Plett u3a undertakes to collect personal information (such as your name, contact number, email and address) solely for the purpose of being able to communicate with our members.

We do not disclose your information to any third parties. We retain personal information for the duration of your membership. By submitting a membership application or renewal form you consent to our use of the personal information provided.

Still and video images of people attending any talk, interest group, event, or outing may be used to illustrate publicity material via newsletters, social media, website, posters or printed brochures, which may be distributed in public places, or through advertising, editorial content or broadcasting distribution. Any Plett u3a member, or approved guest, who does not wish their likeness to be used in this manner must advise the organiser prior to any event at which they are present.

We use website cookies to provide you with a good experience of the website and also to obtain analytics in order to improve the site. By making use of this website, you consent to the processing of your personal information in accordance with the terms hereof.

We will protect personal information by means of reasonable security safeguards against loss or theft, as well as unauthorised access, disclosure, copying, use or modification.
